

The Empty Chair

The Empty Chair in the middle of our room awaits the return of the member who has left the program in search of their true bottom.

The Empty Chair awaits the return of the return of the member suffering the consequences of the addiction in jail or prison.

The Empty Chair reminds us of the loss of those members whose disease drove them to take their own life.

